CASE NO. C17-359 TSZ

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

NOTE ON MOTION CALENDAR:
SEPTEMBER 27, 2017

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER- 1
Case No. C17-359 TSZ

Matesky Law PLLC
1001 4th Ave., Suite 3200
Seattle, WA 98154
Ph: 206.701.0331 Fax: 206.701.0332

1 protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery, the protection it affords from public 2 disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to 3 confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively entitle
4 parties to file confidential information under seal.

5 2. “CONFIDENTIAL” MATERIAL

6 “Confidential” material shall include the following documents and tangible things
7 produced or otherwise exchanged: (1) lists or other documents comprising names or contact 8 information of customers or former customers; (2) lists or other documents comprising names or 9 contact information of suppliers; (3) non-public contracts or agreements, (4) trade secret information
10 as defined in the Uniform Trade Secrets Act, chapter 19.108 RCW; (5) quality control procedures
11 employed by a party; (6) non-public research and development, financial, technical, marketing,
12 pricing, and revenue information; and, (7) non-public communications regarding prospective
13 business relationships between a party or non-party and its customers, (8) information specifically 14 identified as confidential or proprietary in agreements or other contemporaneous documents referring 15 to such information.

16 3. SCOPE

17 The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material (as 18 defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2)
19 all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any testimony, 20 conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential material.

21 However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that is in 22 the public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise.

23 4. ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

24 4.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is disclosed
25 or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, 26

1 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material may be disclosed only to
2 the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this agreement. Confidential
3 material must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner
4 that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this agreement.

5 4.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise
6 ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may 7 disclose any confidential material only to:

8 (a) the receiving party’s counsel of record in this action, as well as employees
9 of counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

10 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including in house counsel) of the 11 receiving party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, unless the parties
12 agree that a particular document or material produced is for Attorney’s Eyes Only and is so 13 designated;

14 (c) experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for 15 this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit 16 A);

17 (d) the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;

18 (e) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication of 19 confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging service
20 instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties and to immediately
21 return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

22 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is 23 reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound”
24 (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or ordered by the court. Pages of 25 transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal confidential material must 26

1 be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted
2 under this agreement;

3 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 4 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

5 4.3 "ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" Material. Any party may designate certain 6 confidential material as "Attorneys' Eyes Only" if that party deems that the disclosure of such 7 material to a party or in-house counsel, officers, directors, managers, and/or employees of a party is 8 deemed to create a substantial risk of serious harm that could not be avoided by less restrictive
9 means. Confidential material marked "Attorneys' Eyes Only" shall not be disclosed to or used by 10 anyone except counsel of record for a party and the persons listed in paragraphs 4.2, (c), (d), (e) and 11 (g). "Attorneys' Eyes Only" material may also be disclosed to additional persons by agreement of 12 the parties or by order of the Court.

13 4.4 Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material or discussing or 14 referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party 15 to determine whether the designating party will remove the confidential designation, whether the 16 document can be redacted, or whether a motion to seal or stipulation and proposed order is 17 warranted. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the 18 standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under 19 seal.

20 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

21 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each party 22 or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this agreement must take 23 care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate
24 standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts of material, 25 documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of the

1 material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not
2 swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement.

3 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 4 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 5 unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary
6 expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

7 If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated 8 for protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other 9 parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

10 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 11 agreement (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or 12 ordered, disclosure or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must 13 be clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

14 (a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents
15 and deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial 16 proceedings), the designating party must affix the word "CONFIDENTIAL" and/or 17 "ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" to each page that contains confidential material. If only a 18 portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the producing party also 19 must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the 20 margins).

21 (b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: the parties
22 and any participating non-parties must identify on the record, during the deposition or other 23 pretrial proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other 24 testimony after reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within fifteen days after 25 receiving the transcript of the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, designate portions of the

1 transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential. If a party or non-party desires to protect 2 confidential information at trial, the issue should be addressed during the pre-trial conference.

3 (c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place
4 on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word
5 "CONFIDENTIAL" and/or "ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY." If only a portion or portions of the 6 information or item warrant protection, the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall 7 identify the protected portion(s).

8 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 9 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating party's 10 right to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Upon timely correction of a 11 designation, the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the material is 12 treated in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

13 6. NON-PARTY DISCOVERY

14 6.1 Designation and Treatment of Material Produced by Non-parties. If a party 15 receives documents, things, testimony, information, or other material from a non-party in 16 response to a subpoena issued under Fed. R. Civ. P. 45, and such material relates to the business, 17 correspondence, or other actions of a party, the receiving party must provide a copy of such 18 material to the party to whom such material relates. The party to whom the material relates shall 19 then have fourteen (14) days from receipt to designate such material as "CONFIDENTIAL"
20 and/or "ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY." All documents, things, testimony, information, or other
21 material received in response to a subpoena shall be treated as ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY 22 until this fourteen (14) day period has passed.

23

25

26

1 7. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

2 7.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of 3 information or items for protection under this agreement at any time. Unless a prompt challenge
4 to a designating party's designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness,
5 unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does 6 not waive its right to challenge a designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after 7 the original designation is disclosed.

8 7.2 Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute
9 regarding designations under this agreement without court involvement. Any motion regarding 10 designations under this agreement or for a protective order must include a certification, in the 11 motion or in a declaration or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and 12 confer conference with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court
13 action. The certification must list the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good 14 faith effort to confer requires a face-to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

15 7.3 Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court
16 intervention, the designating party may file and serve a motion to retain a designation made 17 under this agreement under Local Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if 18 applicable). The burden of persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party.
19 Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose 20 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the challenging party to 21 sanctions. All parties shall continue to maintain the material in question as confidential until the 22 court rules on the challenge.

23

25

26

1 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
2 LITIGATION

3 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels
4 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as "CONFIDENTIAL" and/or 5 "ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" that party must:

6 (a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the 7 subpoena or court order;

8 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 9 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is 10 subject to this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and

11 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued 12 by the designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

13 9. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

14 If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed confidential
15 material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this agreement, the receiving 16 party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the unauthorized 17 disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected material, 18 (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of 19 this agreement, and (d) request that such person or persons execute the "Acknowledgment and 20 Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

21 10. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED
22 MATERIAL

23 When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently 24 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 25 receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This 26

1 provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery
2 order or agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. The parties
3 agree to the entry of a non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) as set forth herein.

4 11. NON TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

5 Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each receiving 6 party must return all confidential material to the producing party, including all copies, extracts
7 and summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties may agree upon appropriate methods of 8 destruction.

9 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all 10 documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence,
11 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert 12 work product, even if such materials contain confidential material.

13 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until a 14 designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.
